IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.46489 of 2008
BRAHMDEO SAHNI
Versus
STATE OF BIHAR
----

2. 28.11.2008 Heard Sri Shubhesh Pandey, Advocate for the petitioner and the learned A.P.P. for the State.

The petitioner is a headmaster in a Primary School was carrying allegedly, 90 K.Gs. of rice meant to be utilized in mid-day-meal scheme. The villagers challenged the petitioner, stopped him, seized the rice and produced the petitioner before the officer-in-charge of the police station with a written report. This is how the headmaster of a school finds himself landing up into jail.

The contention is that the Mukhiya of the Gram Panchayat was not carrying on well with the petitioner and he after setting things up has ensured that the petitioner is humiliated. The next contention was that on account of being incarcerated the petitioner has compulsorily to be put under suspension and there is all possibilities of the petitioner being proceeded against under the charge of mere turpitude.
